

October 12, 2023

Wilmington cemetery commissioners meeting

Meeting was called order.

Commissioners, present Walter White, Richard Khachadorian, Donna Moore, Janet Boyd.

Absent - Ralph Staib

Sextons present, Fred squirt, John Boyd and Todd Steward , Scott Moore

We welcomed guests Town treasurer, Christine Ritter. and Jessica DeFrancesco

Kappa made a motion to except the past minutes and Walter second all were in favor

Jessica provided information on the changes and amendments to contracts for mowing Kappa made a motion to keep the same contracts with any revisions to be made Walter second it all were in favor.

A discussion on a go fund me page for the Veterans Memorial Kappa made a motion to make a go fund me page. Walter second it all were in favor Christine and Jessica will follow up on this.

Fall cleanup was nothing to report on cemeteries they all look great.

A update on the Veterans Memorial park project design and any potential changes will take place at a special meeting on October 24, at 5 pm.

Sexton's report, clean up of personal items and removal of unsightly items, and a review of the rules and regulations that are posted in the cemetery. Fred will provide the public with information for a cleanup on November 5 at 10 AM to remove unsightly rubbish at Riverview. Scott will speak to Marshall about a town truck for rubbish and also for next year with adding pavement to the other part of Riverview if it fit into the budget.

Status update on filing of cremation and burial certificates with no deeds are on a list to be resolved with new deeds and options to reach out to said owners.

Next meeting on October 24,2023 at 5pm at the Wilmington Safety facility.

Motion made to adjourn all were In favor.