Police Detective

JOB DESCRIPTION: The employee in this job oversees and performs investigations of alleged violations of the criminal laws of the State of Vermont. This position requires both uniform and plain clothes work. Work schedule will require assignments as set by the Chief of Police, currently officers' work four ten hour days with three off and there is required on-call status.

Job Title: Detective

A detective at this level will conduct criminal investigations individually or participate in criminal investigations as part of a team or unit. Work is performed under the direction of the Chief of Police or a Sergeant. The detective shall not normally exercise any supervision over other members of the staff unless managing an investigation.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Plan, coordinate and conduct investigations involving major crimes, drugs, fires, and juvenile offenses. Interview suspects, witnesses, and other individuals who may be involved in or have information relevant to assigned investigations. Arrange and attend polygraphs and autopsies. Examine crime scenes for evidence. Assist patrol officers with investigations, search warrants, subpoenas and other technical areas as needed.

Assign and direct the activities of other officers assisting on assigned investigations.

Provide technical advice and assistance to other department personnel in assembling facts and evidence, obtaining and utilizing search warrants, and similar matters.

Prepare and maintain various logs, records and reports related to cases/investigations.

Collaborate with the state fire investigators in investigating major fires.

Investigate and carry out various follow-up activities related to cases involving juveniles and drugs.

Serve as liaison officer with other local, as well as state and federal law enforcement agencies with regard to assigned cases.

Assure that all investigations comply with local ordinances and regulations, all applicable state and federal laws and established professional standards.

Make instructional presentations to schools and other community groups.

At times perform the regular duties of a patrol officer.

Keep abreast of current trends and developments in the field. Attend advanced level technical training and work to become qualified expert in such fields.

Must attend death investigation training and become a Windham County approved death scene investigator. Must attend and complete at least the At-Scene Investigator level of collision investigation.

Maybe assigned to undercover/plain clothes assignments and/or task forces as needed.

Will manage department evidence, storage and coordinate with Vermont Forensic Laboratory.

Will manage and maintain related equipment including evidence testing, evidence collection and storage items.

Will manage, maintain AFIS machine and provide service life plans for all major technical equipment.

Provide technical skills and training to officers and staff of Wilmington Police Department.

When assigned by the Chief may conduct internal affairs investigations or investigate officer complaints.

Desirable Training and Experience

Associate's or Bachelor's degree (preferred) in a law enforcement related field, plus relevant law enforcement experience, or a combination of education and experience from which comparable knowledge and skills are acquired.

Strong knowledge and skills relevant to municipal law enforcement, including good understanding of basic principles and techniques, and broad based knowledge of relevant laws, regulations, ordinance, and operating policies and procedures. Good interviewing/interrogation skills.

Directly related training/experience in criminal investigations, including good working knowledge of state criminal laws, court and criminal proceedings, search warrants, arrest laws, juvenile law, evidence procedures, depositions, victim and youth counseling. Excellent investigative, analytical and problem-solving skills. Ability to direct the activities of others.

Ability to deal effectively with a broad range of individuals, often in emergency, dangerous, and/or highly sensitive situations, requiring the ability to remain calm under pressure, to exercise a high level of common sense and discretion, and to think and act quickly when necessary. Ability to work cooperatively with personnel of other law enforcement agencies.

Physical Requirements

Ability to perform strenuous tasks requiring muscular strength, coordination, and cardiovascular endurance. The job duties require an employee to be absent of any physical limitation which would impair effective performance. The job duties require an employee to work under stressful conditions and may require ability to pass physical fitness requirement 50% as set by VCJTC

Detective

Wilmington Police Department, Detective is typically assigned to state task forces, receives specialty training in evidence collection, internal affairs investigations, evidence management, crash investigations, death investigations, drug investigations, interview and interrogation techniques, forensic cellphone analysis training and additional specialized training as needed.

Employees are assigned to and removed from the position of Detective at the sole discretion of the Chief. The Chief may assign officers, including supervisors, to the Detective position as needed. Officer(s) maybe removed from the position at any time by the Chief of Police.

On-Call

Detectives will be required to have "on-call" hours as part of this position and will be expected to be available by phone and to be called in to incidents as needed. The inability to maintain "on-call" status will result in removal from the position and reassignment at the sole discretion of the Chief of Police.

Vermont Law Enforcement Waiver and Authorization for Disclosures Required by 20 VSA § 2362(a)

This written waiver and authorization fulfill the waiver requirements of 20 VSA § 2362(a), which requires executive officers of hiring law enforcement agencies to obtain such waivers from applicants with prior law enforcement employment as part of the hiring process. This waiver authorizes the current employer to disclose its analysis of the officer's performance, or if not currently employed, authorizes the last law enforcement agency to disclose the reason(s) for no longer being employed at the agency.

Pursuant to 20 VSA § 2362(a), the executive officer of the law enforcement agency currently employing the candidate officer, is not required to provide the written analysis/disclosure of the officer's performance to the executive officer of a potential hiring law enforcement agency if such disclosure is prohibited by: (1) a binding non-disclosure agreement executed prior October 1, 2020; or (2) a collective bargaining agreement executed prior to October 1, 2020; however, collective bargaining agreements executed on or after October 1, 2020 must not prohibit such disclosure.

Pursuant to 20 VSA § 2362(a), the executive officer of the law enforcement agency that last employed the candidate officer is not required to provide the written reason the officer is no longer employed to the executive officer of a potential hiring law enforcement agency if such disclosure is prohibited by: (1) a binding non-disclosure agreement executed prior to July 1, 2017; or (2) a collective bargaining agreement executed prior to July 1, 2017; however, collective bargaining agreements executed on or after July 1, 2017 must not prohibit such disclosure.

Pursuant to 20 VSA § 2362(a), the potential hiring agency cannot hire an officer that refuses to execute this written waiver.

Instructions for Applicants:

I am a law enforcement officer currently employed by _____, I understand this form will be provided to my current employer. I hereby authorize the executive officer or his/her designee to disclose its analysis of my performance in accordance with the above referenced statute.

I was a law enforcement officer but am not currently employed by a law enforcement agency. My most recent law enforcement employer was _____. I understand this waiver and authorization will be provided to my last law enforcement employer. I hereby authorize the executive officer or his/her designee to disclose its analysis of my performance and the reasons for my departure from the agency, in accordance with this statute.

Acknowledgement:

I understand that signing this document authorizes the potential hiring agency to provide my current, or prior law enforcement employer (as applicable) with this waiver and authorization with the knowledge that they will provide the potential agency the disclosures required by 20 VSA § 2362(a). I understand that this is required by 20 VSA § 2362(a) as part of the hiring process. I also understand that any such disclosures provided by my current or former employer shall remain confidential. My signature below confirms my understanding of the requirements and my approval to obtain this information and copies of the information from (check one) my current or former employer.
